

NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE, SATURDAY, JULY 3, 1937

Quote from Putnam in Oakland, July 2, 1937

on the sea without being damaged.

"There was a two-man rubber lifeboat aboard the plane, together with life belts, flares, a .45 pistol and a large yellow signal kite which could be flown above the plane or the life raft."

Putnam said his wife had planned to take emergency food rations and plenty of water on the hazardous flight, the most dangerous on her trip around the world.
